About the Denis S. Barry Foundation

For more than two decades, Denis S. Barry devoted his life to children who were in need of proper burial services. It is our hope that his dedication will be continued forever and through this foundation that bears his name. The Denis S. Barry Foundation, Inc., which has partnered with the Marty Lyons Foundation to assist families who need financial assistance in order to provide a proper burial for a child who has died as a result of a terminal illness.
